Recommended visits

- The Cherry Blossom Festival: The Cherry Blossom Festival is above all a popular celebration that tries to reflect the life of a whole region, both past and future. To this end, all kinds of activities are organized that serve as a showcase for our culture, gastronomy, traditions and way of life.
- Yuste Monastery: Located in the small village of Cuacos del Yuste, we can find the Monastery of Yuste founded by Hieronymite Order of monks in 1402. Currently inhabited by monks of the Pauline Order, it is also well known due to the beauty of its surrounding landscape, Valle del Jerte widely regarded as popular eco-tourist destination.
- Castillo de los Condes de Oropesa: The castle can be historically divided into two parts. The Arabs built up the old castle on the tenth century and there are still several remaining's of the original castle such as its towers. The new castle, was built on the mid fifteen century, owned by the Counts of Oropesa, this castle would be used by Charles I of Spain whilst Yuste was being built.
- German Cemetery of Yuste: The German Cemetery of Cuacos de Yuste is a military cemetery located in the vicinity of the Monastery of Yuste, in Cáceres, Spain. Many of the German soldiers, aviators and sailors of the First World War and Second World War are buried there, who arrived on the Spanish coasts and lands due to shipwrecks or the demolition of their planes.
- Comarca la Vera: Overall, there are plenty of things to do in the area. We find the famous valley of Jerte, a natural paradise full of vegetation, gorges and cherry blossoms. History in every village, every corner, under the surveillance of the Monastery of Yuste and the authenticity of its people.
